

Hans-Jörg Rudloff

Mr. Rudloff is Chairman of Marcuard Heritage in Zürich and of Marcuard Holding Limited, the financial holding company domiciled in Bermuda.

Mr. Rudloff serves also as the Chairman of the Executive Committee of Barclays Capital in London. Until February 1994 he was a member of the Executive Board of Credit Suisse Holding in charge of the Group's strategy. Prior to this, he was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Credit Suisse First Boston Limited, since 1989. In 1987 Mr. Rudloff was elected to the Executive Board of Credit Suisse, Zurich, in charge of all Capital Markets and Securities operations. From 1980 to 1987 he served on the Group Executive Board of CS-First Boston, London as Deputy Chairman. Mr. Rudloff began his professional career with Credit Suisse and continued his training in New York with Kidder, Peabody in 1968. In 1978, he became Chairman of Kidder, Peabody International. Mr. Rudloff graduated with honors in Economics from the University of Bern in 1965.

Other Board memberships today include: Vice-Chairman of Novartis, Member of the Board of the Thyssen-Bornemisza Group, Member of the Board of Pargesa, member of the Advisory Board of Landeskreditbank Baden-Württemberg; Member of the Beirat of EnBW (Energie Baden-Württemberg)