

Oscar Vermeulen

is Director and Head of Portfolio Management of Altis Investment Management. He joined Altis from Morgan Stanley (UK) where he was responsible for the development of the European Asset Allocation/Multi-Manager group. He became a Vice President of the Firm in 1997 and Executive Director in 2001.

Oscar was previously with the Dutch insurance company Achmea/PVF NV, managing their US$1bn US Equities portfolio. Oscar has 12 years of investment management experience and obtained his Masters degree in Economics from Rotterdam Erasmus University where he worked at the Erasmus Department of Finance before graduating in 1993.